BARBARA AND HANK GREENSPUN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

GREENSPUN OPENS TO STANDING-ROOM-ONLY CROWDS!!

Greenspun Junior High School, one of the newly-designed junior high schools in Clark County, opened to 1559 students on August 26, 1991. This school provides a traditional setting in combination with contemporary design and openness. The school's architects and the Clark County School District have provided the students and teachers of Greenspun with a facility that creates an atmosphere which is conducive to learning and to educating.

Student involvement is a high priority at Greenspun and began with first-year potential students selecting the school's colors and mascot. As one student said, "Green, blue, and silver were selected, which represent green for the valley, blue for the sky, and silver for our state."

With this beautiful facility, which in itself creates an exciting atmosphere, along with creative students, the faculty and staff at Greenspun provide every student with an educational experience that is both academically challenging and socially rewarding.

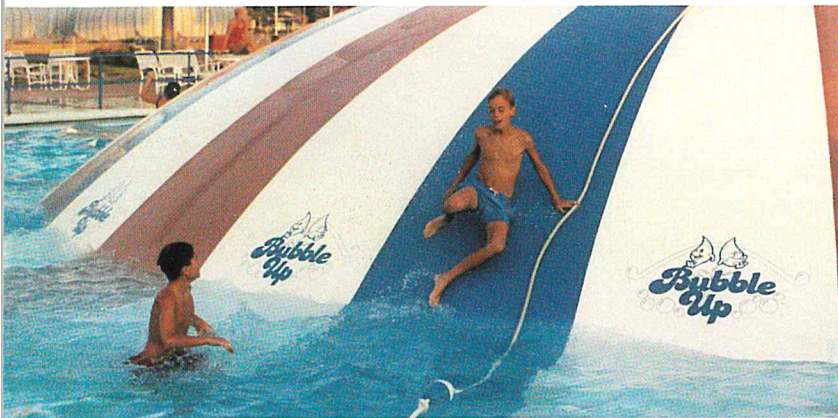

Rachel Crevier was appointed the Quality Control Officer at the Reindeer Factory.

STUDENT LIFE

The playing fields of Greenspun

More than 1600 tickets to Wet and Wild were bought by Greenspun students and families.

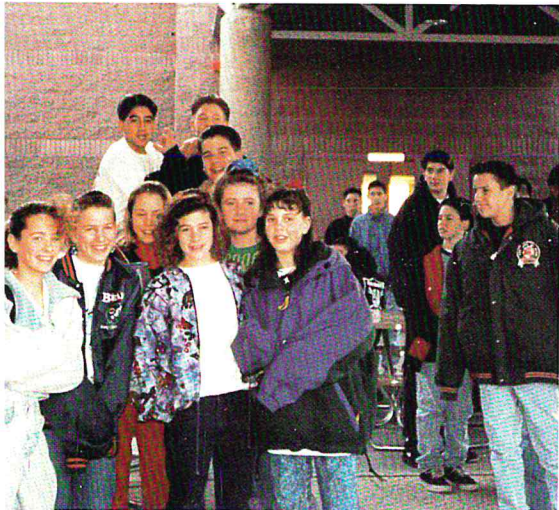

Our leader, Mr. Hurd, displays hidden talents during Teacher Appreciation Week. Mr. Oisboid hopes he has a hat like this someday.

The Greenspun Junior High School Library, whose First Librarian, Mrs. Ruth Mormon, stocked the shelves with thousands of books and magazines for students and teachers.

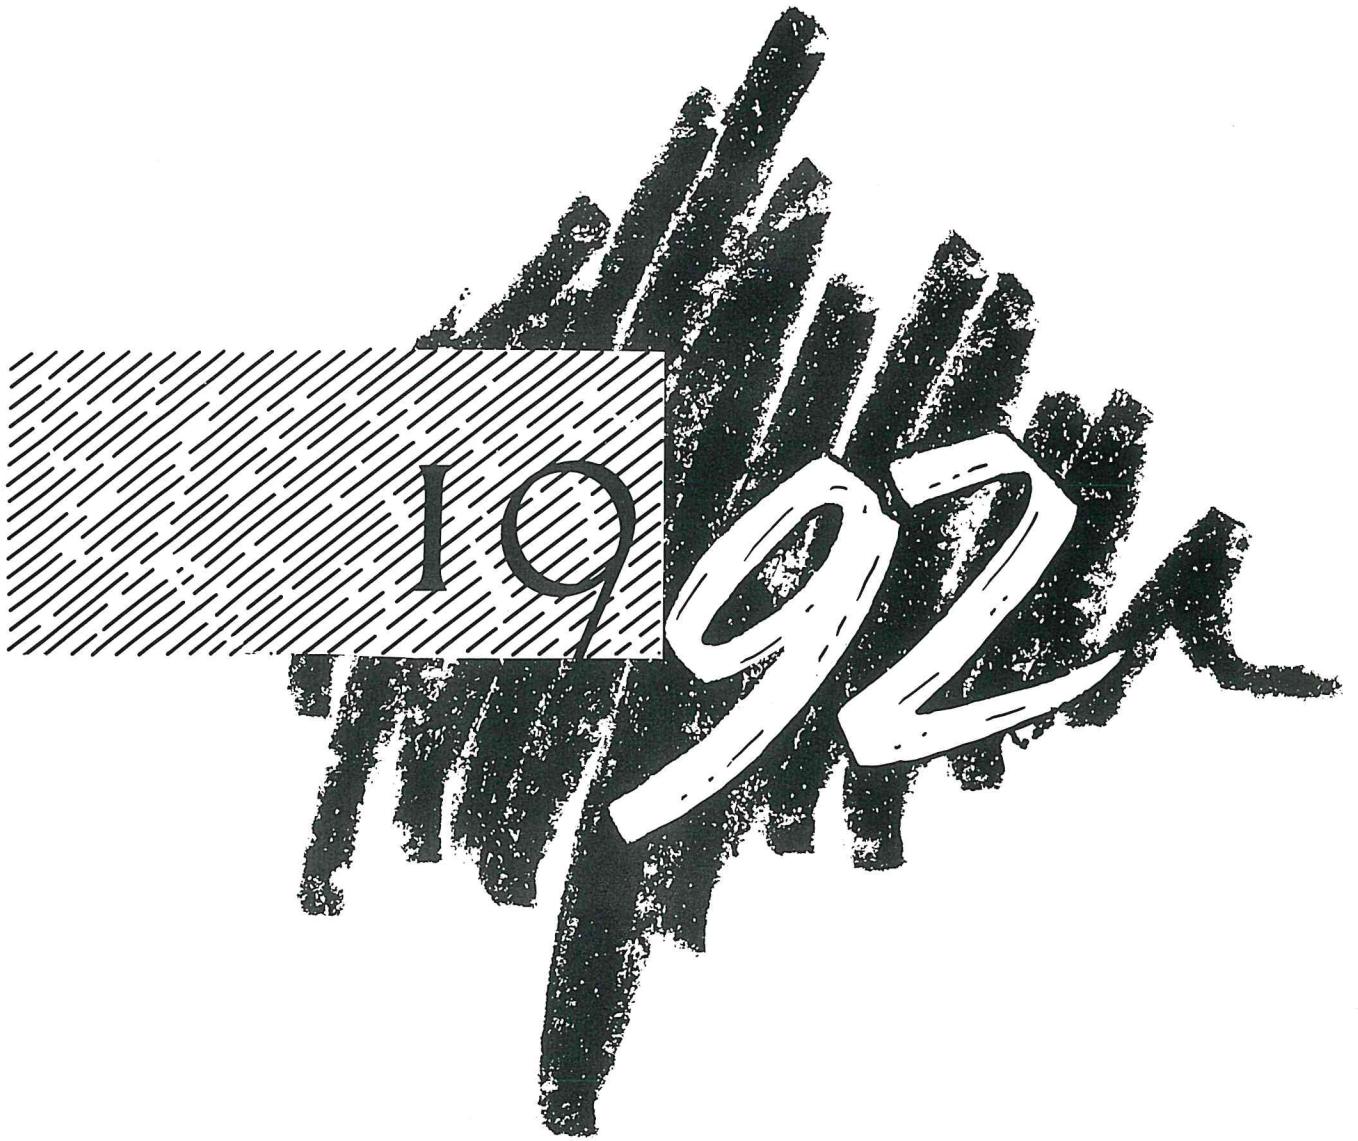

Winter comes to the desert.

Verona Hanak, Janelle Lengyel, Amber Kemp, Jessica Barker, Charlotte Anderson, and Eddie Meek celebrate Halloween.

Ashley Huffaker wonders if sponges really are alive.

Fund-Raisers — A Fact of School Life

Magazine sales winners Tiffany Fears, Staci Harper, Shawn Cropper, Jessica Field, and Erik Hamby accompany Mrs. Housley to a limousine-chauffered lunch at Sam's Town.

Hundreds of students generated thousands of dollars to be used for the betterment of Greenspun Junior High School.

Numerous doughnut sales generated funds for individual clubs and organizations. Pictured are three members of the Dolphinettes Drill Team.

Generous Dolphin students and staff donated well over a ton of canned food to needy families at Thanksgiving. Pictured is the school champion Mrs. M. Johnson's first period class, which donated 247 pounds of food.

In the Lucky's receipts contest, Mrs. Spencer's first period class collected a terrific $31,718 worth of receipts!

Mrs. Hanks' first semester, first period reading class was the Von's receipts champion. They collected an astounding $31,388 worth of receipts!

Fund-Raisers and Contributions To Worthy Causes

A total of 76 motivated students from Greenspun "jumped for their hearts" and raised $1531.70 to donate to the American Heart Association. Pictured is top jumper Angela White, who jumped for $99.00. Accepting the donation is Dee Carroll of the AHA.

Emily Alfter jumps for her heart, too.

Dedication

The "First Class" of Greenspun Junior High School takes pleasure in dedicating the first yearbook to Barbara and Hank Greenspun, for whom our school is named.

Hank Greenspun was a prominent citizen of Nevada for many years. He and his family are well-known for their many philanthropic and civic contributions to the betterment of Southern Nevada, as well as Mr. Greenspun's roles as the owner-publisher and editor of the Las Vegas Sun newspaper. Mr. Greenspun was the principal in the development of the Paradise Valley Country Club and surrounding areas known as Green Valley, a huge and enormously popular planned community development in Henderson. Greenspun Junior High School is located in the center of this lovely residential area.

Both Barbara and Hank Greenspun's careers and community service span decades. Both saw service during World War II in Europe. After the war, they decided to move to the West Coast, and settled in Las Vegas in 1946, where he edited a magazine called Las Vegas Life. Barbara was his assistant. In 1950, he started the Las Vegas Sun, and against all odds made it the most influential newspaper in the state.

At one time he was involved in radio and later owned and operated television station KLAS-TV, which he sold in 1968. He was a major owner of Prime Cable TV; Barbara is now the publisher of the SUN and president of Community Cable.

For his many years of service to the state and community, he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from UNLV. The Greenspun School of Communication is named in the honor of Barbara and Hank's contributions to the field of Journalism.

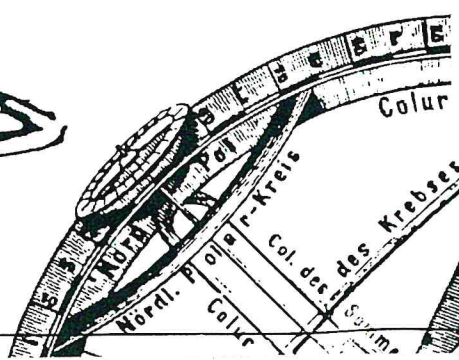

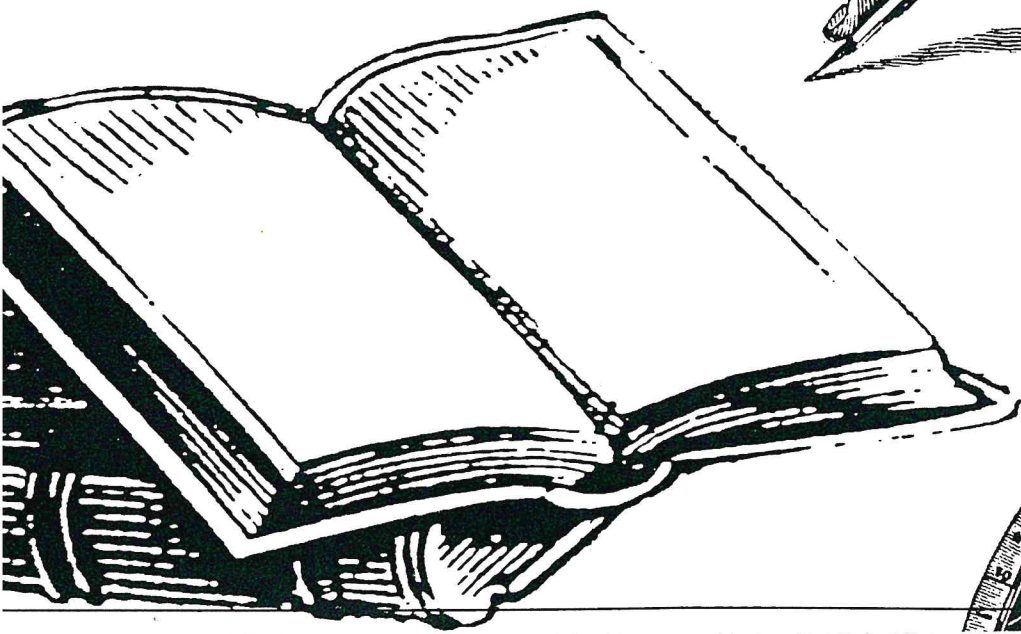

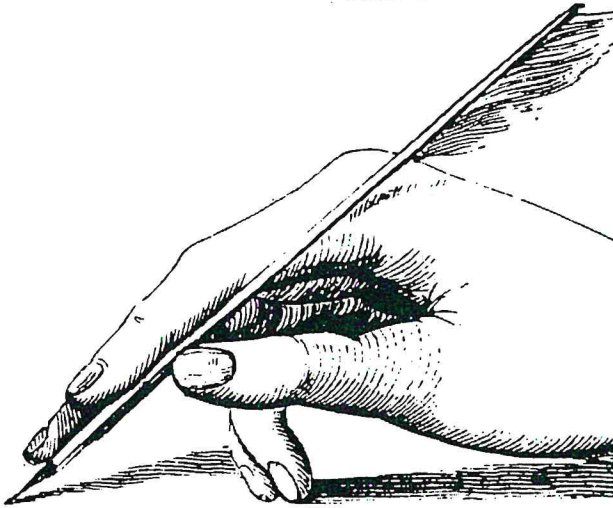

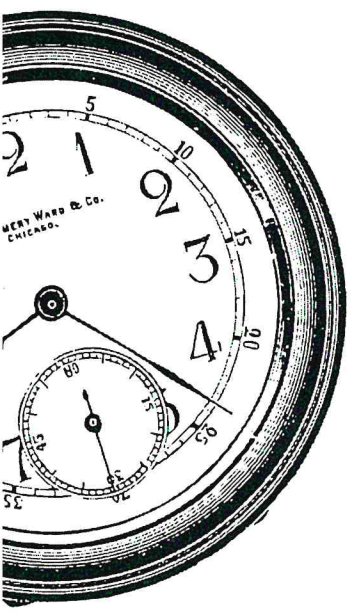

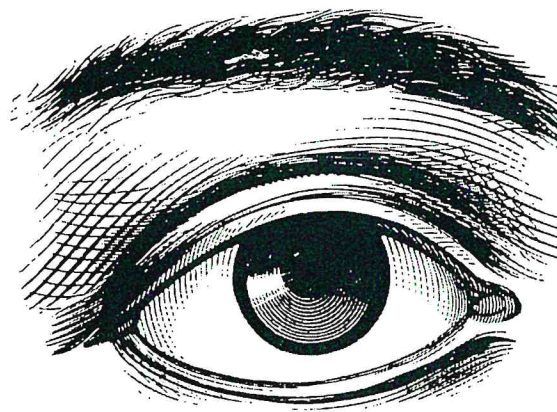

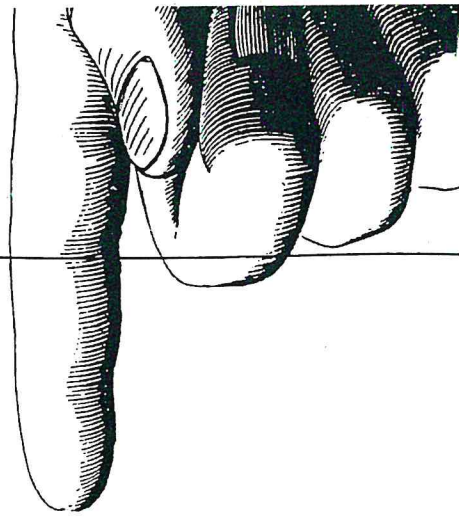

Barbara Greenspun, in addition to her newspaper and television commitments, is also active in community and state affairs. She was honored in May, 1991, as a recipient of the prestigious Distinguished Nevadan Award from UNLV.

Hank and Barbara Greenspun Junior High School was officially dedicated on March 19, 1992. Over three hundred guests were invited to honor these dynamic people.
