GREENSPUN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
1999-2000

One lone girl

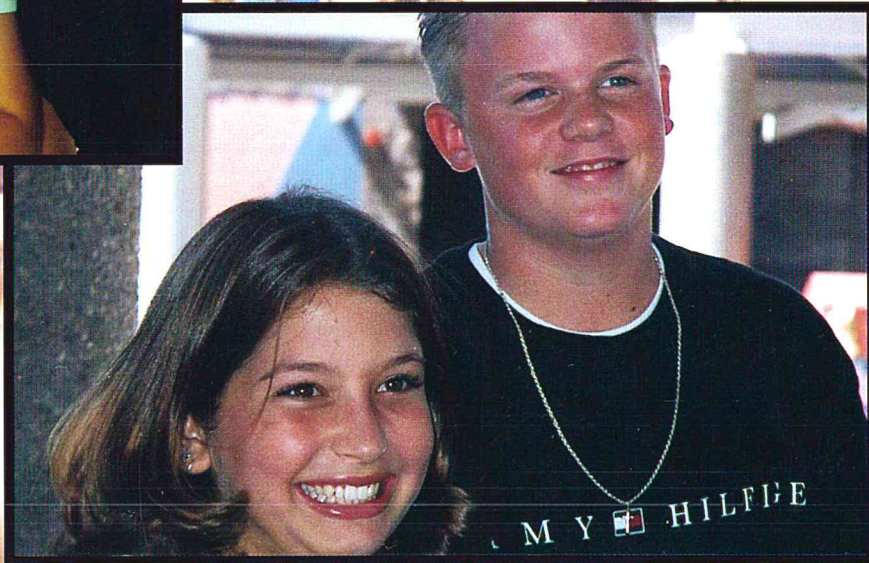

standing at the top of the hill, looking back at Greenspun Jr. High School, and thinking about her past three years here—all the work, friendships, crushes, good and bad times, all the citations for dress code, or gum, or getting a talk from Gerry about the “hands off” policy. All the late nights trying to finish that project due the next morning, and the relief of 6th period on Fridays.

While thinking of this, she wonders of her significance in our world at Greenspun Jr. High, and wonders how she is a part of the school, and if she really makes a difference. While some of us still have a few years here, and some but a few weeks, we wonder what kind of “world” we will enter next and if we do have a voice in the world.

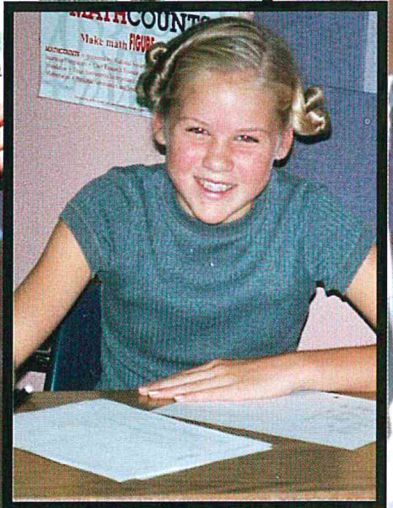

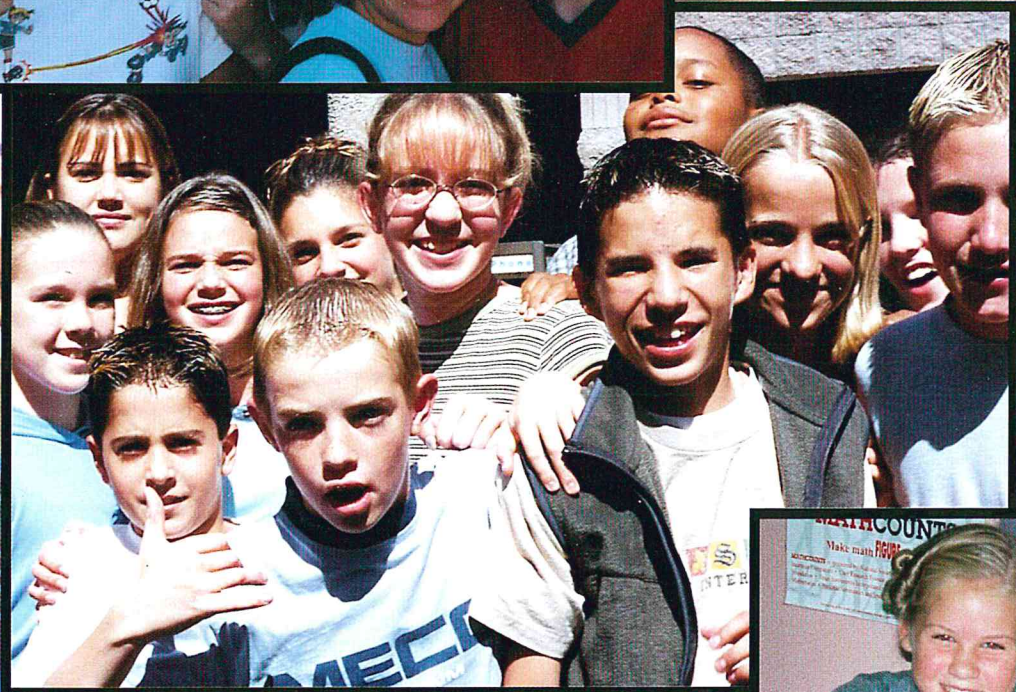

We think about those people who have been with us through it all, our friends. Our friends are the people we could talk to, to escape the chaos of everyday life and all the worries in the world, as the millennium confusion continues. One lone girl thinks to herself, am i being heard? She just starts screaming from the bottom of her lungs. Then one boy turns around, thinking to himself all the same thoughts, his past three years, the sports, the girls, all the celebration and the loudness of Greenspun and he joins her wondering if he too is being heard. The two get the attention of other students and the next thing they know, they are in the middle of a crowd of the millennium chaos wondering if they too are being heard. They rumble.... Green Valley, Las Vegas, Nevada, North America, planet Earth. Can you hear her? Are we being heard? Can you hear our...

Simple

Life is like Basketball, well not really, but it was a beginning anyway!

I put your name in the sand and the waves washed it away, I put your name in my heart and forever it will stay.

Sayings

What if?

Hey
Arnold!

It takes a minute to like someone, an hour to love someone, but a life time to forget someone.

Valentines Dance

Having a
