GREENSPUN JHS LIBRARY

"The best way to inspire people to superior performance is to convince them by everything you do and by your everyday ATTITUDE that you are wholeheartedly supporting them."

Harold S. Geneen

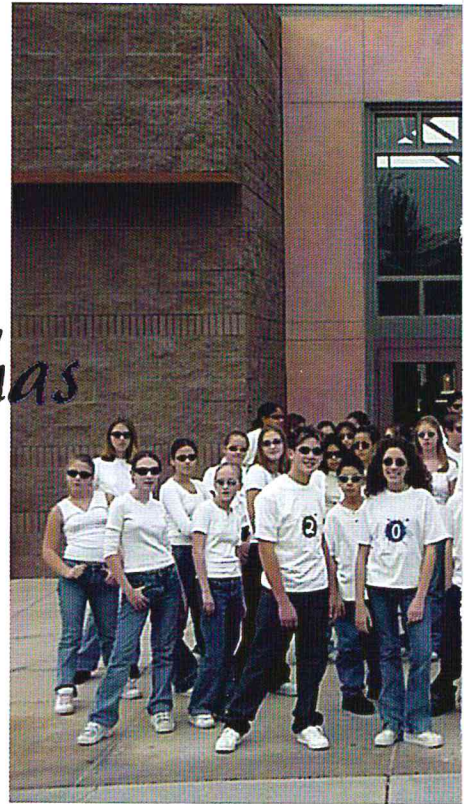

This yearbook is dedicated to Mr. LeRoy Hurd with many thanks for inspiring us all to be the best that we can be.

Attitude

Greenspun has

Greenspun is full of many people, each of us with our own personality, each of us an individual and yet each an important part to the whole. Our attitudes reflect who we are and while we contribute to what Greenspun is, Greenspun will also contribute to who we become.

Ashley O'keefe, Kirstie Segafredo, Victoria Shiroky, Amanda Freitas, and Sarah Leysath show school spirit by dressing for Halloween. Allison Berman at right smiles big for the camera.

Attitude

Greenspun has

A group of people, mostly young adults, are standing in front of a building entrance. They are wearing white t-shirts with a logo and blue jeans. The building has a large glass door and windows. The text is overlaid on the image.

Attitude! What does it mean to you?

Attitude is not having a good or bad outlook on life, it is more a state of mind. If

There were not attitude, people would be lifeless like a computer. We would be spitting out Information with no real emotion. Attitude is individuality, it gives us character, and makes Us all different.

The more unique we are, the more interesting life is. At Greenspun, there is a lot of attitude. This gives us a lot of power and self confidence. Attitude is the difference between success and failure.

ATTITUDE -- What does it mean to you?

The Big Kids on Campus

What an amazing feeling, finally in the eighth grade! We have waited two years to be the big kids on campus. Now that we are here, it feels awesome! Three eighth graders were good enough to share some of their thoughts on the subject.

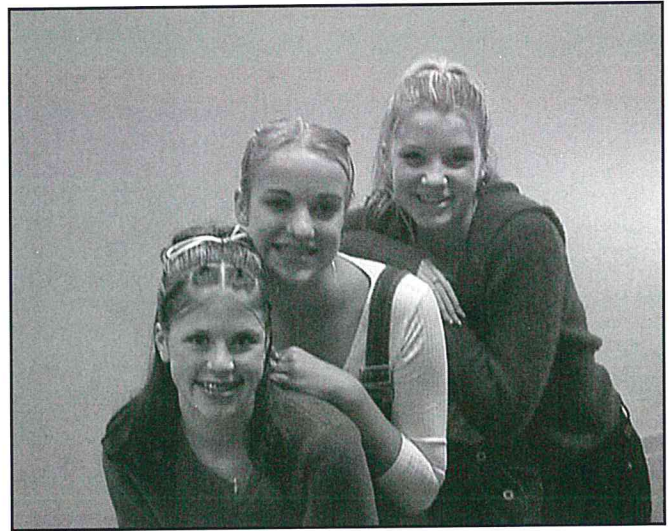

Everyone has a different outlook on being the oldest class at Greenspun. Brad Shoemaker stated, "I don't really think too much of it because I'll be a small one next year." Not everyone is going to agree with what Brad said because some people think it is a great feeling. Britni Meyer said, "People think of you as an example." Eighth graders have a variety of feelings toward being the big kids on campus. Erin Sanford mentioned, "It feels weird being the oldest because everyone is younger than us. But eighth grade rocks!"

Most of the eighth graders at Greenspun Junior High are enjoying every moment of being top dog! Although, sooner than we know it, we will be the young pups again. Whatever happens, we will always be dolphins in our hearts!

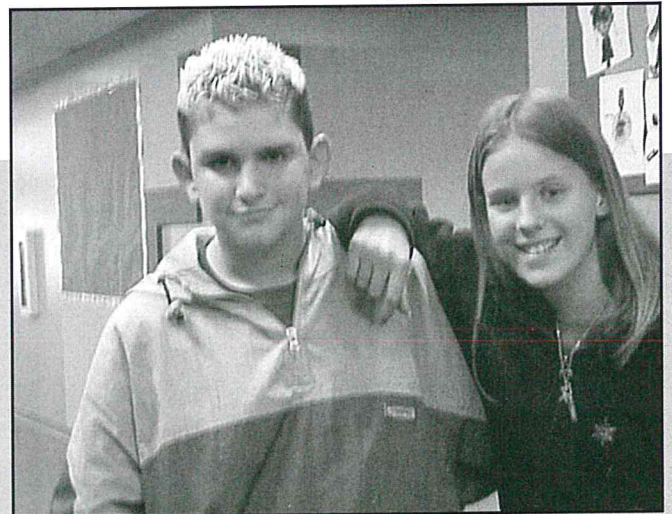

Attitude comes in all shapes and

What about the 8th grade?

This is what we asked 7th graders at Greenspun!

"How do I feel about becoming an 8th grader?", a question that is constantly swirling around in the minds of 7th graders all over campus. Although they probably feel comfortable being the cream of the oreo, we had to find out how they feel about becoming the cookie on top. So we searched, interviewed, and finally got the answers we were looking for.

Ben Cooper, one of them mentioned that he isn't too worried about going on to the 8th grade because it looks like any other year to him. He added that he has many 8th grade friends and so what it is like.

On the other hand, Calli Fitzwater, Sean Frieland, and Jasmine Jones are a bit nervous to step up to the plate. They are scared because they know it will be their last year here at Greenspun and they won't want to leave. Jaclyn Greb said she is very scared of the homework! Who wouldn't be?!

"I have lots of 8th grade friends so I've already seen what it is like... it looks like any other year!"

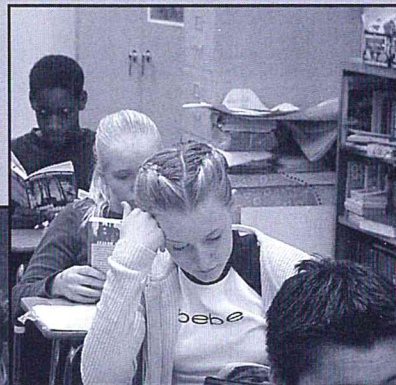

Calli Fitzwater, Sean Frieland, and Jasmine Jones are a bit nervous to step up to the plate. They are scared because they know it will be Greenspun and they won't want to leave. Jaclyn Greb said she is very scared of the homework! Who wouldn't be?!

Whether you are anxious or freaked out about going to the 8th grade, you are not alone. We found several 7th graders willing to share their feelings and, if you look, there is sure to be someone else out there that shares your feelings and knows what you are going through. Just ask any 7th grader ~ "How do you feel about being an 8th grader?"

Above: Courtney Mason, Chelsea Pales, and Aaron Bagsbey reading to pass the time.

My most embarrassing moment was.....

... when I tripped and fell in my first period class!

... when I had toilet paper trailing from my shoe.

... when I threw up on my best friend at lunch!

... when my pants fell down in Mr. Boshko's class!

The real meaning of ATTITUDE...

Attitude is the way you respond to someone!

2

The way you feel and act about things!

3

Attitude is someone's perspective on life!

Above are Kelly, Jenny, and Alexa very excited about Halloween.

THE Next BIG STEP

Sixth graders deal with transition into Junior High.

Each and every one of us has so many emotions on the first day of junior high. The true beginning of maturity all starts on that very day. For some, this feeling is overwhelming; for others, it is just another day in their lives. Meeting new people, making new friends, and extracurricular activities are just a few of the many things we enjoy. Junior high school is a corner stone in the development of our personalities. Three sixth graders have given their input on the big switch between elementary school and junior high.

Maria Stanley, John Sanders, and Breanna Okallaghan have shared their first feelings about coming to a new school. They all agreed that the school is much larger than their previous school and they felt as though they were going to get lost. We all know being late to class was on our minds at the beginning of our 6th grade year.

Leaving elementary school was a big change and Maria was very excited about it. She was glad to be moving on and ready for some major changes. Breanna had a few things on her mind when she joined the Dolphins this year. The thought of having many teachers was a scary one and topped her list of expectations. John was glad to meet new people and make new friends.

Now that the first day has passed, they feel a lot more at ease and comfortable about being with all their new peers. Each of us goes through many changes in our lives and growing up is a very exciting part of that. The big transition into the teenage years is full of wonderful memories that will be with us for many years to come!

Maria Stanley

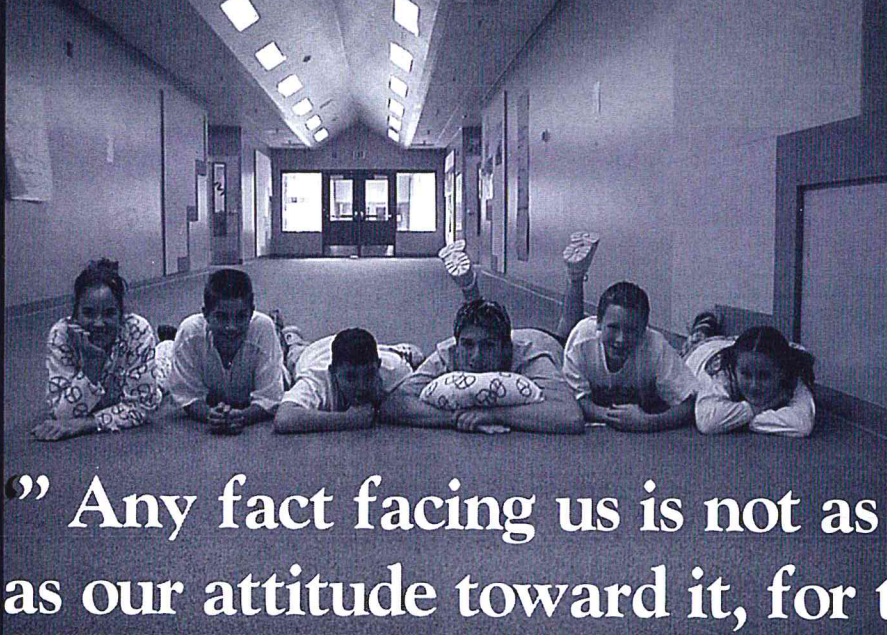

John Sanders

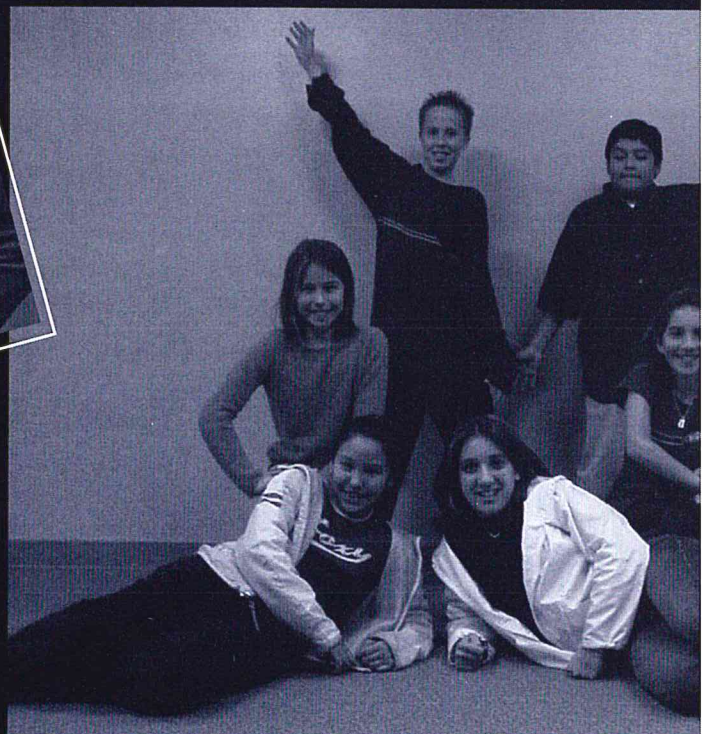

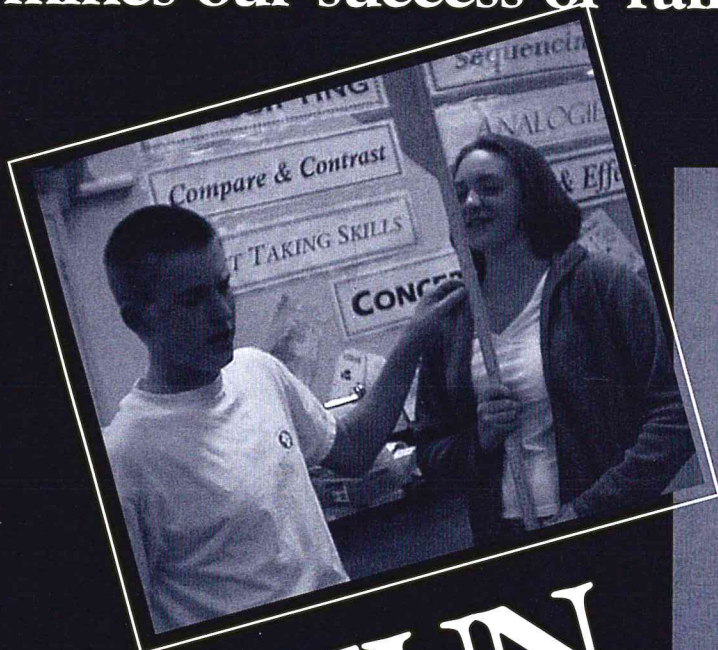

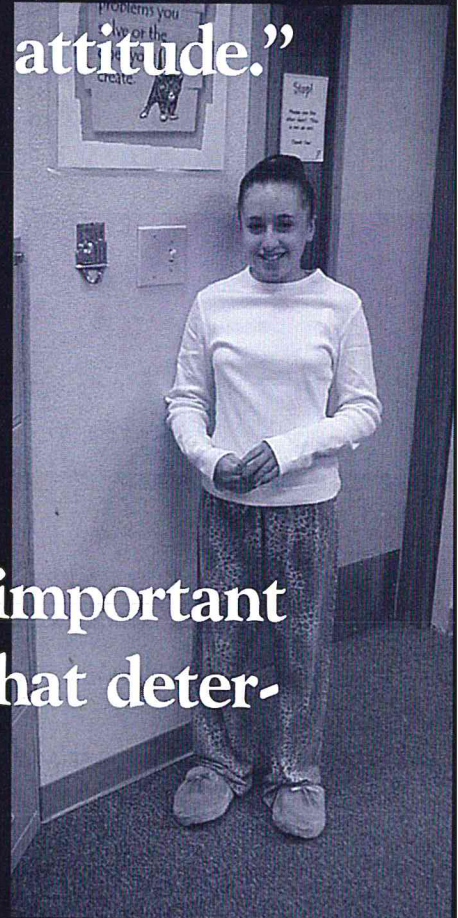

Breanna Okallaghan

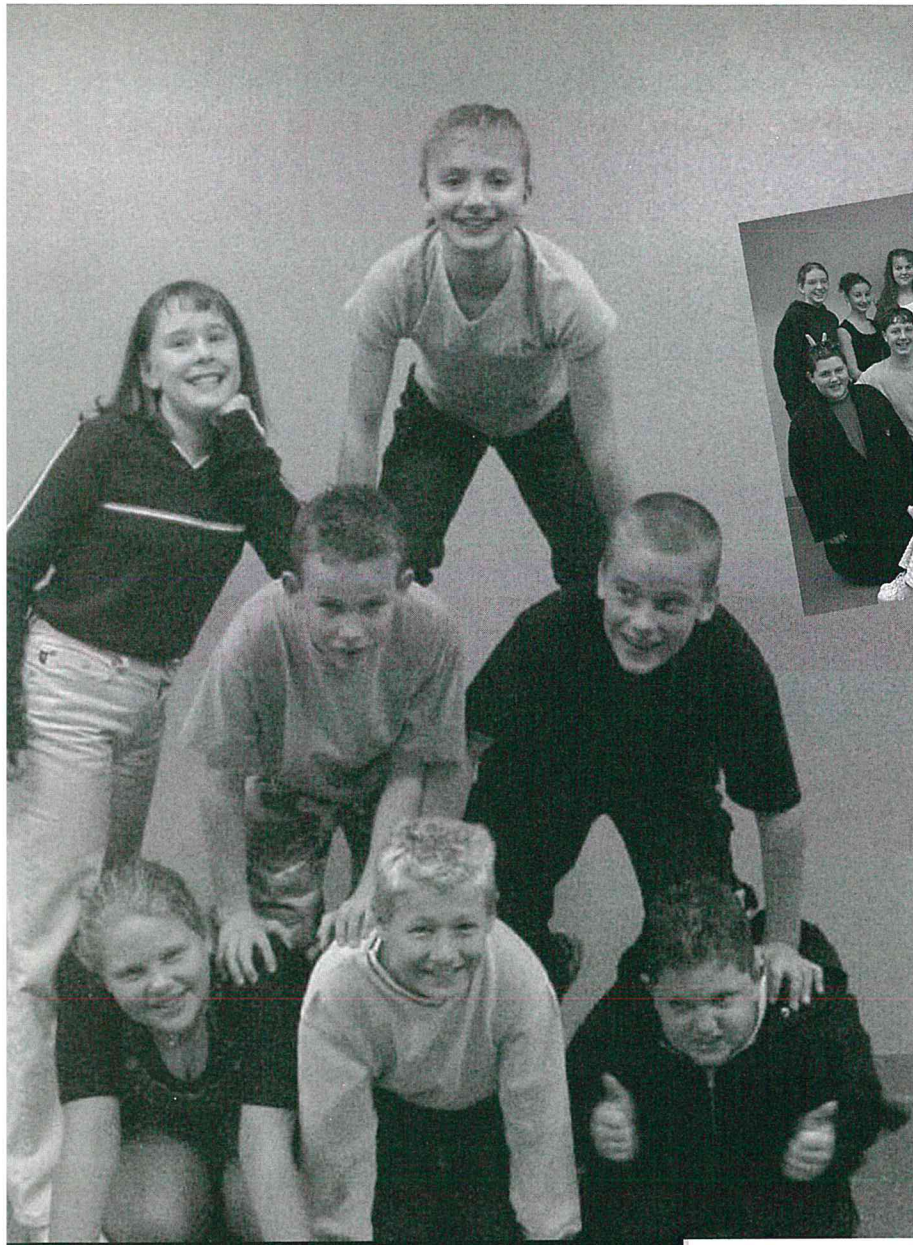

“One truly cannot be described, If the one doing the describing has a bad attitude.”

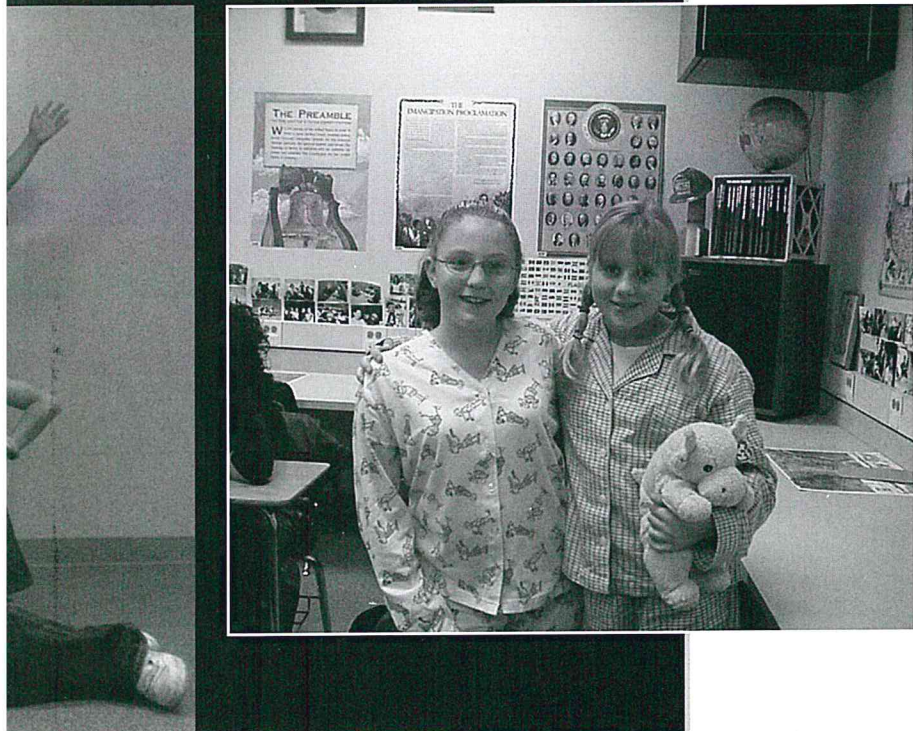

“ Any fact facing us is not as important as our attitude toward it, for that determines our success or failure.”

Mr. Hurd is Saying Farewell!

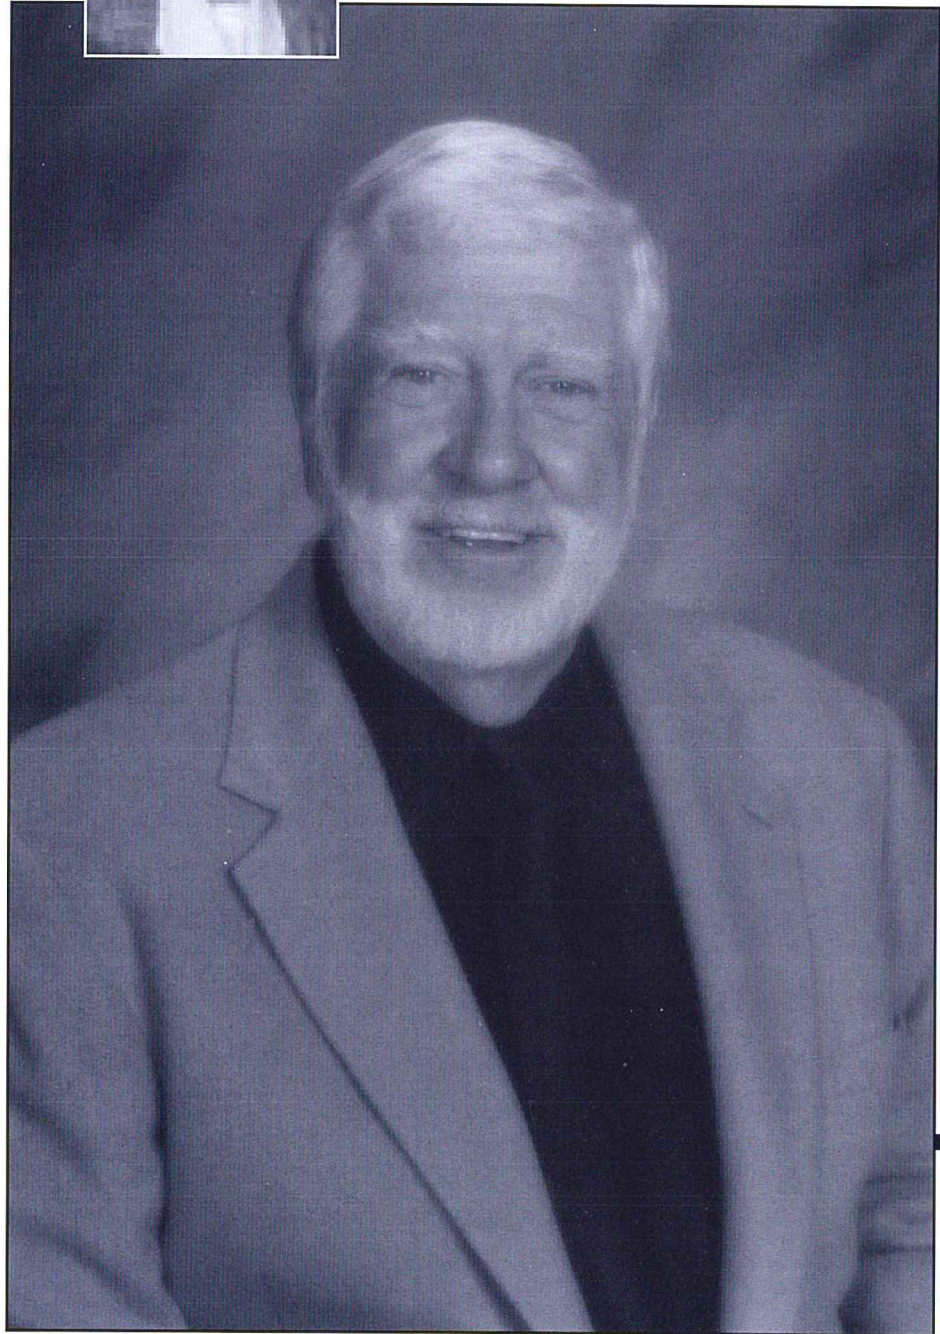

For many years Mr. Hurd has been working as an educator. It all started in Meeteetsy, Wyoming, where he got his first job as a math teacher in a school of forty-nine students. Continuing to teach, Mr. Hurd worked at J. D. Smith Junior High School, his first job in Clark County. After a couple of years he then earned a position as Assistant Principal at William Moore Junior High School. Three years later he was promoted to Principal. Since then he has worked at four junior high schools over the last thirty-two years. Mr. Hurd has also been with Greenspun since its opening.

Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Trauernicht have had the opportunity to work with Mr. Hurd for many years and they both stated that he is an amazing man to work for. Mr. Stedman also said that he is a very trusting man. He gives full support to all of his teachers and always gives freedom to his staff to do the best jobs that they can.

Highly respected by Greenspun staff and students, Mr. Hurd is known for his great sense of humor and his wonderful qualities. He will always be remembered as an amazing principal and we thank him for his years of service and dedication. We will miss him!

A group of people full of school spirit standing outside before the game starts.

It's almost time for tip off. Greenspun is just minutes away from the first basketball game of the season. Students are lined up and full of excitement. They can't wait to get in. You can hear cheers and shouts from all angles, "Go Dolphins!" The excitement hangs thick in the air. Teachers and administrators keep watch over the crowd, but their school spirit is obvious too.

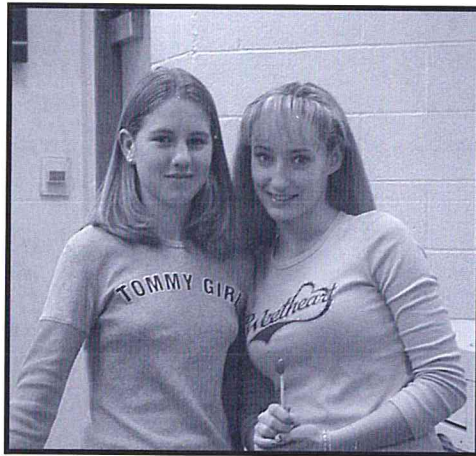

Finally, the word is given to go in. Tickets are sold and the gym quickly fills. How can we lose with so many here showing their support? The whistle blows, the game begins.

Greenspun has great pride in themselves. As you can see, the students and faculty go all out to show their school spirit. No matter what the score, we are winners.

Our Generation

Students like us make up this generation. Our lives are made up of choices, some good and some bad. These choices are what define us. We can't plan for the obstacles we may face, but we can choose how we react to them. If we rush, the outcome could be a big disaster. These choices and the resulting consequences help to form our character. In the same way, our individuality is formed by our attitude toward life. Greenspun has a great ATTITUDE and we are lucky to be a part of it. We, and therefor our generation, have benefited from being here!

Maria Tirota Andrews gained international notoriety when she brought her 300-lb. pig, Charlotte, on a Boeing 757 airplane flying nonstop from Philadelphia to Seattle. The pig joined her owner in first class, having been granted "service animal" classification usually reserved for seeing eye-dogs. Andrews, who suffers from a heart condition, brought the pig along on her doctor's recommendation, claiming Charlotte helped her feel more relaxed.

Nearly 100,000 mothers converged in Washington, D.C. and nearly one million rallied across the country in the Million Mom March. The demonstration was meant to put pressure on Congress to enact tougher gun control laws, while memorializing those senselessly killed by gun-related violence.

One of the hottest holiday items of the year, the mini-scooter, turned out to be more hazardous than fun. More than 100,000 scooters were recalled due to complaints the handles unexpectedly came out of the steering column, causing riders to fall. The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission reported nearly 10,000 people, mostly children, were treated in hospital emergency rooms for scooter-related injuries by the end of the year.

"Caring capitalism" yielded to creamy profits when Ben Cohen and Jerry Greenfield, otherwise known as the hippie co-founders of Ben & Jerry's ice cream, finally sold their company to multinational conglomerate Unilever, despite public protests of "don't sell out!" Childhood friends Cohen and Greenfield founded the company in 1978.

The commandant of the Marine Corps grounded all MV-22 Osprey aircraft activity following a crash in North Carolina that killed four Marines. The crash was the second fatal accident for the troubled $40 billion program. In April, the Osprey crashed while attempting to land after a test mission, killing all 19 Marines aboard. At $80 million apiece, the aircraft is part of a new generation scheduled to eventually replace all of the Marines' primary troop-transport helicopters.

After years of urging recruits to "Be all you can be," The U.S. Army decided it was time to update their image and change slogans. Targeting recruits between the ages of 18 and 24, the Army launched new promos focusing on technology, training, benefits and the individual with the new tagline "An army of one." The old slogan was ranked the second best advertising campaign of the 20th century.

Old Man Winter dealt the United States a heavy blow beginning in late November. Heavy snows covered the Midwest and Northeast throughout the holiday season, and southern states such as Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Georgia, and Florida suffered unusually cold temperatures and heavy ice storms, which damaged crops and caused lengthy power outages for many residents.

The Houston Comets pulled ahead in overtime for their fourth straight WNBA Championship with a 79-73 victory over the New York Liberty, making Houston the first professional basketball team to win four straight titles since the Boston Celtics captured eight in a row in 1959. The Comets defeated New York 2-0 overall in the series with the help of four-year MVP Cynthia Cooper, who hit a 3-pointer with 21 seconds left, forcing the tied game into overtime.

Indiana University's volatile basketball coach Bobby Knight was dismissed after 29 years of leading the Hoosiers. Knight was fired for "a pattern of unacceptable behavior" and for allegedly grabbing and swearing at a student, violating the "zero tolerance" policy instituted by university president Myles Brand. Thousands of devastated students protested the decision.

Defensive player of the year and game MVP Ray Lewis led a defense that intercepted four passes from the Giants and held New York to 152 total yards. The second and third touchdowns on three plays late in the third quarter were back-to-back kickoff returns by New York wide receiver Ron Dixon and Baltimore wide receiver Jermaine Lewis, creating a Super Bowl first.

The Kansas City Wizards downed the Chicago Fire, 1-0, for the MLS Cup at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C. The win was a surprise comeback for the Kansas City team who finished last in 1999, and had not been to the MLS post-season since 1997. With 10 saves in the Chicago game and a record 16 shutouts in 2000, Wizards goalie Tony Meola had one of the best seasons of any player in MLS history, earning MVP honors from MLS and Honda, as well as Aquafina Goalkeeper and Ace Comeback Player of the Year awards.

More than 10,000 of the greatest athletes from around the world gathered in Sydney, Australia to participate in the 27th Olympiad. Despite being dubbed "the best ever" by leaders of the International Olympic Committee, a 15-hour time difference between the United States and Australia kept many Americans from watching live as the United States came away with an unprecedented 97 medals.

Spectators beheld a dazzling opening ceremony, including the lighting of the torch by Australian runner (and native Aborigine) Cathy Freeman, who was later overcome with emotion when she won the gold for the women's 400-meter race.

Although the games received the lowest television ratings since 1968, many athletes gave inspirational performances.

United States sprinter Marion Jones fell short of her goal to win five gold medals, but still got the gold in the 100 and 200 meter sprints, and the 4x400 meter relay, as well as the bronze in the long jump and 4x100 meter relay, winning the medals in spite of the distraction of husband and shot put world champion C.J. Hunter's positive drug test.

The first five cloned piglets were presented to the world in April. The pigs were cloned from fetal-pig skin cells and scientists believe that due to the similarities between porcine (pig) and human organs, the techniques used to clone this litter may eventually create a supply of genetically modified pig livers and other organs that would be acceptable to the human immune system.

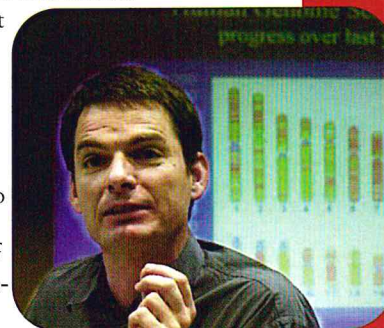

Researchers from Carnegie Mellon unveiled Nomad, the first robotic planetary rover with onboard intelligence. Previous planetary explorers, such as the Mars Pathfinder, needed human controllers to tell them what to do, but Nomad performs tasks such as snapping pictures, collecting samples and sending data back to earth by itself. Using a laser range finder and spectrometer, the robot analyzes every single rock in its path. Scientists hope to employ future generations of the rover to explore other planets.

It was a bittersweet victory for scientists when they successfully cloned a dead Asian gaur, an extinct species, and brought it into the world from the belly of a farm cow. The baby bull, called Noah, was born at Trans-Ova Genetics in Sioux City, Iowa, but died shortly after birth. Although Noah died, the project gives hope for ways to save endangered species and resurrect those already extinct.

After years of dreaming, planning and arguing over who should get the credit, the International Human Genome Project and Celera Genomics put their differences aside and officially announced they have (both) deciphered the 3.1 billion biochemical "letters" of human DNA. The amazing breakthrough will allow scientists vast insight into human health and disease at the molecular level, knowledge that will lead to a revolution in diagnosing and treating everything from Alzheimer's to cancer. The discovery is seen as one of history's great scientific milestones, the biological equivalent of landing on the moon.

November 9: Gore's team requests a hand recount of ballots in four Florida counties, Palm Beach, Miami-Dade, Broward and Volusia.

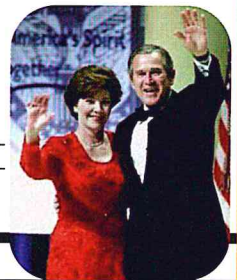

November 16: Bush's lawyers submit written arguments to the U.S. Federal Appeals Court to end recounts.

November 22-December 8: Hand recounts and legal battles continue, making the word "chad" (the small piece of paper punched out of the ballots) a household word.

December 9: The U.S. Supreme Court halts the manual recounts and sets a hearing for two days later.

December 13: In a public concession speech, Gore states he no longer wishes to prolong the election, and yields the presidency, making George W. Bush the nation's 43rd president, and the first chief executive since Benjamin Harrison in 1888 to claim the office with the majority of electoral votes but a minority of the popular vote nationwide.

Both Firestone and Ford suffered major blows after Firestone, a unit of Japan's Bridgestone Corp., was forced to recall six and a half million 15-inch ATX, ATX II and Wilderness tires, most of which were mounted on Ford Explorers. The faulty tires separated from their treads, causing major accidents, personal injury and more than 100 deaths. The recall is one of the largest in U.S. history.

The Army tested the Crusader, a faster, bigger mobile howitzer intended to replace the Paladin. The $23 million system can travel up to 29 miles per hour, with a shell distance of 25 miles. It can also fire a series of 100-lb. shells in rapid succession at different trajectories so that the shells all land in their target zone at the same time.

President in his wheelchair. Stricken with polio at age 39, which caused him to lose the use of his legs, Roosevelt kept his handicap a secret for political reasons. The National Organization on Disability fought for six years to get a statue that showed the President as he lived.

Unusually cold temperatures and the lights of the holiday season put a crunch on the California utility market. Exorbitant electricity prices coupled with the threat of rolling blackouts angered consumers who were urged to conserve power, and even take down holiday lights. Despite a cap on the state's utility rates, the California Public Utilities Commission approved a 26 percent rate increase to help the two largest utility companies out of $9 billion dollars of debt. Blackouts throughout the area caused local merchants to suffer and lose revenue.

Six and a half million acres burned in wildfires that raged across 12 western states throughout the summer, including Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Arkansas, California, and Nevada. In Montana alone, firefighters were mobilized from 38 states, Canada, New Zealand, Australia, and numerous military units to help battle the blazes.
